What is it?

Barbra is over the age of 60 and is the type of person that would benefit from a lovely home cooked meal and maybe a bit of chit chat with someone in her neighbourhood.

Joe loves cooking and trying new recipes. Through the week he cooks for his wife and two kids. Joe would like to do some volunteer work in his community but finds that at this stage in his life he doesn't have a lot of time to do so.

Casserole Club is perfect for both Barbra and Joe, it's a project that connects people who like to cook and are happy to share an extra portion of a delicious home cooked meal, with older neighbours living close by who could really benefit from a hot cooked meal.

Casserole Club members serve up tasty, home-cooked food to their neighbours, getting more people eating and cooking fresh meals while strengthening local neighbourhood relationships with every bite.

Cooks are required to sign up on the site and undertake a short safeguarding process before they can search and contact local Diners. The Casserole Club team works with local organisations to help reach Diners, we also take direct referrals including from friends and relatives.
